

cultures interactive

Budapest Centre
FOR MASS ATROCITIES PREVENTION
FOUNDATION FOR THE INTERNATIONAL PREVENTION OF GENOCIDE AND MASS ATROCITIES

Nansenskolen
Norsk Humanistisk Akademi

Dialogue For Peace and Stability in Ukraine

Webinar

24 April, 2025

15.00 – 16.30 CET

Join the “Alliance for Dialogue” for the Next Session on Dialogue!

This event is part of a continuing series of webinars that examine the transformative power of dialogue in bridging value divides, preventing violent conflicts, and exploring the potential benefits of institutionalizing dialogue as a structured practice.

The upcoming session will provide a platform to reflect on the necessity and challenges of integrating dialogue and multilateralism in the efforts for long-term peace and stability in Ukraine.

Programme

Welcome by

Gyorgy Tatar, Chair of the Budapest Centre for Dialogue and Mass Atrocities Prevention

Panel Discussion

“Merits and Chances of Inclusive Peace in the war between Russia and Ukraine”

Julia Palmiano Federer, Center for Security Studies

“Conflicts within the peacebuilder community in Ukraine”

Josh Nadeau, Ottawa Dialogue

“Local perspective of dialogue in making peace in Ukraine”

Tetiana Kyselova, Director, Mediation and Dialogue Research Center, Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, Ukraine

“Navigating Ukraine’s Dialogue: Key Groups and Essential Topics for War-Time and Post-War Times”

Natalia Bezkhlibna, Head of the Secretariat of the Ukrainian Community of Dialogue Practitioners

Discussion

Please register here to receive the zoomlink.