

Building Resilience against Violent
Extremism and Polarisation

BRaVE-Award Application Form & Project Proposal

I. Applicant information

Applicant name (individual applying or legal representative of organisation applying)
Organisation name (if not relevant leave blank)
Organisation address
Country
Contact person (if different from applicant) & contact information
Type of organisation (e.g. Youth, sports, culture)
Main field of work (e.g. Music, Fun sports, media education, theatre)

II. General project information

II.1 Project title (not more than 10 words) max 100 Characters

II.2 Brief description (summary of the project's objectives) max. 500 characters → This text will be shown on the BRaVE website!

Building Resilience against Violent
Extremism and Polarisation

II.3 Main target group max. 300 characters

--

II.4 Main place of implementation max. 300 characters

--

II.5 References (links, funding partners)

--

III. Short summary of the project

III.1 What is the challenge or need that your project seeks to address?

max. 500 characters

--

Building Resilience against Violent
Extremism and Polarisation

III.2 Describe your approach to the problem? (Please describe which measures and methods you have implemented to address the challenge or need described above? How did you reach out to your target group and got them involved?) max. 500 characters

III.3 Impact (what was the impact achieved by the project? Please give details on activities, persons reached, any tangible changes in the environment or in individuals, any other ways of assessing the impact. Please describe the innovative content or approach that your project employs) max. 300 characters

Terms and conditions

By entering a submission to the BRaVE awards, you agree that all of the information you submit is true, current and that all the necessary copyright permissions are in place. The BRaVE project reserves the right to make any changes to deadlines or awards should this subsequently become necessary. The BRaVE Project also reserves the right to disqualify any entrant if it has reasonable grounds to believe the entrant has breached any of the Rules.

---

Signature of the applicant

Please send the signed and scanned Application Form together with your Video to:
brave@eui.eu